

Youry Bilak

Youry Bilak was born in France in 1961 to Ukrainian parents. He began his career as a dental technician, afterward he became a dancer, actor and singer in a Ukrainian company based in North America. Once back in France, he went all over Europe in Jérôme Savary's show called CABARET from 1986 to 1989. Then, he became a children's shows director. Fascinated by pictures, he began a new career in the art of photography, as a fast track to understand people and the world around him. He is satisfied when his pictures reveal people's true emotions.
