

Dominika Koziak

Dominika is a Canadian artist with a Ukrainian-Polish cultural background. Born in 1991 in Edmonton, Alberta, Dominika completed her Bachelor of Fine Arts degree at the University of Alberta in 2013. Dominika then moved to New York City where she attained her Master of Fine Arts degree at the School of Visual Arts. Dominika also received intensive training at the Rome Art Program in Italy where she focused on painting and drawing from classical architecture and art. In New York City she attended the Prosopon School of Iconology, where she studied classical techniques and the style of Icon writing.

Her art focuses on a relationship between contemporary and ancestral culture. Her painting involves the Byzantine Iconographical style of painting, with Korean Pop Idols as the subject. Ancestral techniques from both cultures also play a role in the work through the application techniques of writing an icon, and historical motifs.

Dominika has also been educated in silversmithing, focusing on adding Riza covers to her icons. She also specializes in custom silver jewelry, as well as unique hand drawn copper etch earrings of miniature icons.
