

Iryna Parkhomenko

Iryna Parkhomenko was born and raised in Ukraine. As a young child she had a natural talent and passion for art which, was both supported and nurtured by her parents, particularly her mother. She attended children's art school in Kremenchug, Ukraine and went on to study art and design formally at the Dnepropetrovsk Art College. Upon graduation from Art College, she worked as a graphic designer and taught art in Ukraine at the elementary school level.

After living in Greece for 5 years, she returned to Ukraine and eventually immigrated to, and became a citizen of the USA. She has close personal ties to the Edmonton, Alberta area and plans to relocate there in the near future.
