

Moments from the Battlefield.

The Photographs of Maxim Dondyuk

This document showcases 10 photos from our “Moments from the Battlefield” exhibit. There are several activities that you can do with your students with these photos. The activities are listed on our website, www.acuarts.ca.

Solider with an orange cat.

Ukrainian Army soldiers are returning after the battle in the City of Irpin.

Kyiv Region, 12.03.2022

Kharkiv Regional State Administration building was destroyed by air bomb.

Kharkiv, 16.03.2022

The military and volunteers help elderly people cross the blown-up bridge across the Irpin River, through which residents were being evacuated to the city of Kyiv.

Irpin City, Kyiv Region,
12.03.2022

An elderly couple collects personal items that survived their bombed apartment. The Town of Borodyanka have faced some the worst attacks since Russia launched its invasion of Ukraine. It is strewn with destroyed buildings and burnt armored vehicles. School buildings, homes, and apartments in the town center were severely damaged as a result of air and ground strikes.

Town of Borodyanka, Kyiv Region, 05.04.2022

This monument celebrating Ukrainian writer and poet Taras Shevchenko, is protected from shelling with sandbags and boards.

Kharkiv, 26.03.2022

Field of wheat in snow.

Soldiers of the 41st Battalion of the Ukrainian army, go to set up a cross in the woods, where seven of their fellow service members were ambushed by a reconnaissance group of the Russian army and killed on June 5. 30.09.2022.

Village of Bohorodychne, Kharkiv Region.

The central stadium after several air strikes.

Chernihiv City, 10.04.2022

Evacuation of civilians from Irpin, through a bridge destroyed by shelling. The bridge was destroyed by the Armed Forces of Ukraine to prevent the enemy from reaching Kyiv. On this day at 10 am women, children and the elderly were supposed to be evacuated from the town by trains, but the enemy blew up the railroad tracks so people were asked to move to another location from where they would be picked up by buses for transportation to Kyiv railway station.

Irpin Town, Kyiv Region,
Ukraine, 05.03.2022